BRAZILIAN FOOTBALL LEGEND CAFU MEETS WINNER OF IWC LAUREUS DRAWING COMPETITION

---

Rio de Janeiro/Schaffhausen, 4th October 2018 – Brazilian football legend and Laureus Academy Member Cafu visited Instituto Reação, a programme supported by Laureus Sport for Good, where he met 11-year-old Ana Claudia. With her drawing on the theme “Time to be Healthy” engraved on the backside of the Pilot’s Watch Mark XVIII Edition “Laureus Sport for Good Foundation”, Ana won the drawing competition IWC organises each year within the foundation’s programmes.

Cafu is the only player to appear in four consecutive World Cups. He played in three World Cup finals, winning in 1994 and 2002 when he was captain and was a runner-up in 1998. During his visit to Instituto Reação, he congratulated Ana on winning the drawing competition: “I’m happy that Ana won this competition which raises money to help underprivileged children all over the world. It was extraordinary for me to give her the prize. It’s wonderful to think that so many young people like Ana from different countries entered this competition. It shows how effective Laureus is at building bridges between communities. I would like to thank Laureus Global Partner IWC Schaffhausen for their support with this wonderful initiative.”

Instituto Reação is one of the many projects all over the world supported by Laureus Sport for Good. Founded in 2003, the Brazilian organisation improves the living conditions of children and adolescents through education and sport. It mainly relies on judo to convey values such as respect, discipline and determination. Christoph Grainger-Herr, CEO of IWC Schaffhausen, commented: “On behalf of our whole team at IWC, I would like to congratulate Ana on winning the drawing competition. It is wonderful that we can help to support programmes like Instituto Reação. As a keen sportsman, I am convinced that sport has a positive influence and a sustainable impact on young people’s lives. Ana’s drawing beautifully captures why it is important to integrate sport into your daily routine.”
